

-Unclassified-

Nato Air Refueling Procedure

Reports

Fighter: "Giant, Hello, _____"

Tanker: "_____, Hello, Giant at FL XXX, standart QNH, report judy"

Fighter: "_____, judy"

Tanker: "_____, report visual"

Fighter: "_____, visual"

Tanker: "clear echelon left, contact boom frequency"

Fighter: "_____ On boom frequency"

Tanker: "_____ Clear Astern"

Fighter: "_____ Astern"

Tanker: "_____ Clear Contact"

Tanker: "Contact"

Tanker: "Disconnect"

Tanker: "_____ Clear Echelon right, you

Tanker: "Formation _____, Clear to leave at FL XXX and contact military control"

Emergency Procedures

Loss Of Visual:

- eighter the tanker or fighers is able to report "Loss Of Visual Contact".
- Each airplane will turn away from the tanker's heading:
 - o First fighter will turn 15 degrees for 15 sec
 - o Second fighter will turn 30 degrees for 30 sec
 - o Etc..

-Unclassified-

Breakaway:

- When there is an emergency in either the tanker or receiver, Boom operator will report "BREAKAWAY, BREAKAWAY, BREAKAWAY " and 4 red outer director lights will flash.
- After BREAKAWAY the boom operator will disconnect the receiver and report "Disconnected, Clear astern".

Terms and Definitaions

1. Echelon Left:

- The Initial formation position for a receiver joining a tanker before refueling.
- A position to the left and slightly behind the wing with a minimum of one receiver wingspan clearance.

ATP-3.3.4.2

2. Echelon Right:

- The Formation Position for a receiver after leaving the tanker.
- A position to the right and slightly above the tanker wing with a minimum of one receiver wingspan clearance.

3. Astern:

- 50 feet behind the boom.
- Closing speed – 0 knots.

4. "Offload / Onload":

- The amount of fuel to transfer.

5. "Roll In / Roll Out" :

- Tanker is getting into a roll or out of a roll.